Brussels (Belgium), April 10, 2019, 18:00 – Société Anonyme Belge de Constructions Aéronautiques ("SABCA") announces that its board of directors has been informed of the decision of its shareholder, Dassault Belgique Aviation SA, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Groupe Industriel Marcel Dassault, to sell its stake of 96.85% in the share capital of SABCA and to appoint, for this purpose, the investment bank Rothschild & Co.

Groupe Industriel Marcel Dassault has communicated its intention to be very attentive in the selection of a purchaser capable of guaranteeing the industrial future of SABCA under the best conditions.

About SABCA

The SABCA Group, made up of SABCA (Société Anonyme Belge de Constructions Aéronautiques) and its subsidiaries SABCA Limburg and SABCA Maroc, conducts operations from the three Belgian regions (Brussels Capital Region, Charleroi in Wallonia, and Lummen in Flanders), as well as from Casablanca, Morocco. Today, SABCA demonstrates a palette of expertise that is as rich as it is varied, built over its almost 100 years of experience in designing, manufacturing, maintaining, and upgrading large, heavily loaded and complex elements for aircraft and space launchers. Its customers and partners belong to the elite of the aerospace industry. SABCA offers a full range of services to the civil, space, and military aviation markets and recently expanded into the commercial drones market as a platform designer and manufacturer, and more globally as an integrator of solutions based on civil drones for the industry.
